NELSON & NELSON RETURNS TO THE MANHATTAN ART & ANTIQUES CENTER AFTER A FIFTEEN YEAR HIATUS

After a fifteen-year hiatus, Nelson & Nelson Antiques returns to The Manhattan Art and Antiques Center on February 15th, 2009. Nelson & Nelson Antiques, a family business, has been owned and operated for 30 years by husband and wife team, Steve and Marge Nelson. They will continue to offer an extraordinary collection of antique silver. Many of the items are rare and historical. The Nelsons have earned a reputation for the fine quality and wide variety of exquisite and unusual objects, personally selected by them for their clientele. They will be located in Gallery #95.

Gallery #95 will be replete with dazzling examples of late 19th century and early 20th century silver candelabra, tea sets, punch bowls, candlesticks, picture frames, flatware, hollowware and vanity items. They also carry an extensive selection of bronze doré picture frames, cut crystal, beautiful enamels and Victorian and Edwardian Jewelry.

After fifteen years at their Park Ave location, Marge and Steve are very enthusiastic about returning to The Manhattan Art and Antiques Center in what Steve describes as a return to his roots. He maintains, "You don't find quality selections anywhere else that are comparable to the collections available in The Center. It is the largest and finest antiques center anywhere in The United States." This move will make Nelson & Nelson more accessible to the multiplicity of designers, collectors, dealers, tourists, and discerning consumers who patronize The Center. "I am very happy to be back," he says.
