RARE AND EXCEPTIONAL ANTIQUES AT AGOSTINO

Agostino Antiques, one of New York's preeminent antique houses, is known for the finest examples of 18th and 19th century English and Continental antiques and antique reproductions. Their access to private sources worldwide insures that their pieces are rare and exceptional.

Agostino Trupiano, the company's founder, is a skilled furniture restorer and manager of the restoration workshop. His extensive knowledge of the complex techniques involved in reproduction coupled with his keen awareness of the proper finishes and most accurate colors and sheens, guarantees that the integrity of each replicated piece is maintained. Accuracy of detail and construction is the hallmark of each Agostino reproduction. His expertise and experience includes antiques of all periods and all countries.

Agostino's son, Salvatore, is president of the company. All aspects of the business including buying, managing the showrooms and all restoration work are supervised by him.

Featured is an antique Queen Anne period walnut secretary cabinet, circa 1720. Model AA713.

The extensive line of Agostino antiques and reproductions includes mirrors, chandeliers, English dining tables and chairs, breakfronts, cabinets, impressive consoles and the ever-popular games tables. An exclusive line of Chinoiserie decorated English furniture, meticulously hand-painted by talented Chinese artists has been recently introduced.

Agostino Antiques maintains two showrooms in New York, the D&D Building, and 808 Broadway. A third showroom is located in the DCOTA in Dania Beach, FL.
